Embracing & Awakening your Aphrodite

Everyone has a Venus/aphrodite archetype in their chart. Depending on its signification in our chart, it can give us keys to understand our love life, values, needs in the relationship, pleasure, art, sensuality but most importantly it indicates the way we give love to ourselves and how to cultivate this primordial relationship form within.

Love, and relationships is a key foundation in our life. Sometimes my clients are shy to ask about this theme but it is one that is so recurrent and underneath everything.

In astrology Venus enchants our life, gives us liveliness, wellbeing, a sense of joy, connection. She enables us to create beauty and make our life our own piece of art, everyone has its unique flavor and path to embody her.

So when Venus is afflicted or receiving strong energies, we lose the sparks, we disconnect from her magic.

In this session we will focus on her magic so we can unlock your love life blueprint, and no worries I do not believe there are good or bad positions in astrology;

There are challenges, initiations that require to activate our inner alchemist but the treasures of this journey can be so rewarding. Sometimes it's a soul requirement for evolution to undergo such challenge in our love life.

Aphrodite (greek name of Venus) enables us to reconnect with our desire and cultivate the basic relationship, the one with our core desires so we can open to another.
